Shaykh Atabek's Message (Scholar of the Hanafi Madhab)

*"Many find only a mirage, when seeking water
Many attain mere copper whilst seeking gold
Many find only glass on their quest for diamonds
So know that the best route for the destination is the route which has been tested and experienced by authentic guides for thousands of years*

We follow and teach the traditional way through a classical programme, following in the footsteps of giants of sacred knowledge"

About the Shaykh

Shaykh Atabek Shukurov began his religious studies in his native Uzbekistan at the young age of ten under local scholars such as Sheikh Sayyid Karim Namangany and Sheikh Mohammed Jaan, under whose guidance he began to memorise the Qur'an. In 1998 he moved to Damascus for higher studies with some of the finest scholars of our time. He enrolled on a four year 'al-Jaza al-Alimiyya' programme at the Takhassus Institute which is affiliated to al-Azhar University, Egypt. During this time his studies included: Sharh Ibn Arqeel with Sh. Atiyya, Sharh Fiqh al-Akbar with Sh. Adeeab al-Kallas, Lubab with Sh. Abdullah Rabiah, Aqida with Sh. Saeed Ramadan al-Buti, Risala Qushariyya with Sh. Abdul Fatah Bizm, Hadith with Sh. Sadiq Darwish, Da'wa with Sh. Tawfiq al-Buti.

Whilst continuing his studies at the institute he also focused on intensive private lessons with Sheikh Muhammed Adnan Darwish and covered Fath Bab al-Naya and the Mu'tatta Imam Malik. He also studied Shudhoor al-Dhah, Sharh Qatar al-Nida, Thufatal Mureed, and Mukhtasar al-Bukhari with Sheikh Rushdi al-Qalam.
